

TAKE HOME QUIZ

Due Monday: You can email answers as well.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____ ID: A

tmassucci@tfd215.org

Ch12 Speech Quiz

True/False

Indicate whether the statement is true or false.

- ___ 1. A notecard is often used in extemporaneous speaking.
- ___ 2. The impromptu speech calls for a quick mind and instant audience analysis.
- ___ 3. Vocalized pauses tend to distract your audience.
- ___ 4. Practice does not help some speakers.
- ___ 5. The power source for a speaker is the vocal process.
- ___ 6. The lungs are two muscles.
- ___ 7. The chest is the power source for breathing.
- ___ 8. Chest breathers are short of breath and weak in volume.
- ___ 9. Rate and pitch have little to do with each other.
- ___ 10. If you think you may look silly, avoid platform movement.

Completion

Complete each statement. Use the following words to complete the sentences. You may use some more than once.

articulation faster manuscript memorized extemporaneous impromptu monotone pitch emphasis volume articulators articulation inflection platform movement rhythm mispronouncing 120-180

- 11. It might be said that your _____ is your style of presentation.
- 12. The four delivery methods are _____, _____, _____, and _____.
- 13. Using the _____ method, you primarily read your material.
- 14. Chance are you are going to speak _____ than you think you will.
- 15. The average rate of speaking is about _____ words per minute.
- 16. _____ refers to the vocal notes that you hit while speaking.

Name: _____

ID: A

17. You speak in a _____ when you deliver all of your words methodically at almost the same rate and pitch.
18. By giving a word more _____, you make the audience aware that some of your words are more important than others.
19. _____ is the loudness or softness of your voice.
20. Altering your vocal tone or your pitch is called voice _____.
21. _____ refers to the crispness, the distinctness, with which we say the syllables in a word.
22. The jaw, the lips, and the tongue are known as the main _____.
23. _____ a word shows that you have not done your homework.
24. A good speaker, like a good dancer, must have a sense of _____.
25. _____ means walking or stepping in a directed manner from one spot to another while speaking.

Short Answer: Choose 3 to answer. Give a paragraph response of at least 7-10 sentences per question answered. (number 29 will have to be written differently.)

26. Explain what "penguin-like" gestures are.
27. What should you try to do and try to avoid when using platform movement?
28. What is the most important nonverbal element in an effective delivery and why?
29. Write a sentence multiple times, emphasizing a different word of the SAME sentence each time it is written. Then explain what the difference is in meaning of those sentences.
30. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of giving a manuscript speech.
31. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages to giving a memorized speech.